

Please do not block traffic and weather from being broadcast on Satellite Radio. In a day where efficiencies make our lives less complicated, those listeners who choose Satellite Radio deserve to have information that affects their safety (i.e. severe weather alerts and accident areas) and should not have to change the medium to receive that information.